FULL TIME HEALTH BUREAU FOR BOURBON

The recent announcement that the Paris Commercial Club has advocated a full time health department for Bourbon county and the city of Paris has elicited many inquiries from interested citizens. Several prominent physicians of Paris have endorsed this movement as one of the most progressive steps in community welfare that has ever been endorsed by any organization in Paris.

According to a statement made by Secretary Harris, the purely commercial value of the full time health department estimated in terms of increased hours of industry due to better general health conditions is far in excess of the yearly expense of maintaining this department. He stated that entirely from the standpoint of economics, bankers, merchants and farmers should be equally interested in the plan to supervise efficiently and constantly the application of the principles of hygiene and sanitation to our community.

Many of the knotty civic problems that seem almost impossible of solution are handled by this department in a manner encouraging to laymen who have ventured into this difficult field. We have in Bourbon county in the Health and Welfare League an organization that can automatically become a part of the full time health department, as has been the practice in other counties, and retain the services of a woman who has been invaluable in her work in our community.

The State with the aid of the Rockefeller Foundation proposes to give Bourbon $5,000 provided a like amount is raised, and financial assistance may be expected from the Red Cross, Anti-Tuberculosis League and other welfare organizations.

WOMEN HONOR FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON

Several thousand women, including numerous delegates to the Baltimore convention of the National League of Women Voters, and to the convention of the League of American Pen Women, staged a demonstration before the home of former President Wilson, in Washington.

Cheers of the women brought Mr. Wilson to the door, and upon requests for a speech he declared that while he appreciated the compliment very much, he felt he was "not strong enough to make a speech."

Mr. Wilson, called back by the cheers, again thanked the women and added:

"I will repeat for you one of my favorite limericks, which runs as follows:

"For beauty I am no star,
My face I don't mind it,
Because I am behind it—"

The rest of the verse was lost in a burst of laughter and cheering that was heard for blocks.

The delegation from the Kentucky League of Women Voters to the national convention in Baltimore was received by the Kentucky Congressional delegation in the office of Senator A. O. Stanley. Those present to receive the delegates, besides Senator Stanley, were Senator Richard P. Ernst, Representatives Ben Johnson, B. H. Kincheloe, J. Campbell Cantrill, J. M. Robinson and Charles F. Ogden, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. John Langley and Mrs. Cantrill were also present to welcome the Kentucky delegation.

SAMPLE TRUNKS ROBBED

Ben Downey, traveling salesman for the David Ades Dry Goods Co., of Lexington, who resided here many years until moving to Lexington, parked his truck, containing his sample trunks, on Seventh street, while he went to the ball park to root for the team representing his old home town, Paris.

On his return he found the trunks broken open, and rifled of goods amounting to about $75, besides some articles of personal wear.

The matter was reported to Chief of Police Link, who arrested and jailed a young white boy named Arthur Mack, charged with having broken open the trunks and removed the missing goods. The goods were recovered and restored to Mr. Downey. Mack had only been released from jail about three weeks ago. A number of automobiles have been robbed of rugs and clothes and the police are of the opinion Mack has been concerned in some of them.

Two runs off of Vallandigham in the ninth inning before an out was made gave the Paris Mammoths a victory over the Winchester Hustlers in the game at League Park Sunday afternoon. The final score stood 7 to 6, the score being 6 to 5 up to the ninth. Tavenner, who started in the box for the Hustlers, allowed but seven hits in the seven innings, but was taken out on account of wildness. Brockey, the Paris catcher, got five hits out of five times at bat. The game was a loosely played one by both teams. The batteries were: For Paris—McCord, Moser and Brockey; for Winchester—Vallandigham, Tavenner and Thoss; umpire, Shaw; time of game, 2 hours and 55 minutes. The score by innings:

The event will be a double header, with the following contending teams: Presbyterians vs. Methodist; Christian vs. Baptist. Play will be called promptly at 1:30 o'clock. These grounds have been put in excellent shape, with commodious grandstand, and all accommodations on the various teams have been putting in many hours of strenuous practice and a good game is looked for.

Manager Goodman has given Catcher Powell his release, due to the fact that he does not desire to carry three catchers. He recommends Powell very highly to any semi-pro club in need of a good catcher. Mosher, the new pitcher, comes highly recommended by Garry Herrman, of the Cincinnati Reds.

BOURBON COUNTY AGAIN "FIRST OVER TOP."

Informal reports from all over the State indicate that the campaign to complete the $300,000 fund to erect a memorial building on the University of Kentucky campus will be successful. It was reported by Herbert Graham, alumni secretary.

Although the fund has not been paid in, the spirit among the children to raise their one dollar quota is high and when the reports are all in the $300,000 will be secured, Mr. Graham said. Previously $180,000 has been given, leaving $120,000 to be raised.

Bourbon county is officially the first county over the top, it was announced by Mr. Graham. Prof. Lee Kirkpatrick reported the $5,000 quota raised. A report from Louisville states that $32,000 of the $50,000 quota of Jefferson county has been secured.

The scholarships offered by the committee is proving an incentive to the high school seniors who are working hard, Mr. Graham said.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings of the last regular meeting of the City Council was enlivened by a debate between members of the Council and Chas. E. Cook, the latter representing the various church bodies of the city. The subject matter was a petition, numerous signed, and presented by Mr. Cook, requesting the Council to refuse to grant licenses to any one to conduct soft drink stands, who had been previously indicted and fined for infractions of the law.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Cook expressed his confidence in the Mayor and members of the City Council, but said that existing conditions should be remedied, and intimated that if the officials did not do their full duty the church people would take the matter in their hands some time in the future. Councilmen Kenney and Doyle defended the attitude of the Council, and defined their attitude in regard to the issuance of licenses. Mayor January took the stand that the Mayor and the Councilmen were doing their duty as they saw it.

At the conclusion of the talks action was taken in the matter, and the licenses of all the soft drink stands in the city were renewed.

Councilman George Doyle reported that the city was overdrawn in bank to the extent of $10,000, that a note for $5,000 was due, and another note for $2,000 would fall due on the first of May.

The Treasurer was directed to borrow $10,000 for immediate use, and all salaries of city officials who would permit it would be held up for a few weeks until license funds began to come in.

BOURBON STUDENTS AT KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

Basil Hayden, son of J. W. Hayden, of Paris, Kentucky, is a graduate student in the University of Kentucky, having completed the prescribed course in chemistry in June, 1921.

He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity and of Alpha Chi Sigma, the honorary chemistry fraternity, membership in which is indicative of high scholastic standing.

Young Hayden excels in athletics, having been captain of the basketball team of 1921, which was declared the champion team of the South in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association tournament at Atlanta. His work this year, brilliant as it has been, was seriously hindered by injuries sustained at the first of the season.

For three years he has starred in U. of K. track meets. He holds the State record for the javelin throw, which is 163 feet 3 inches, established here in the State meet of 1921.

Fannie Beneva Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Heller, of Paris, Ky., is registered as a Senior in the Home Economics Department of the College of Agriculture at the University of Kentucky. She entered the University in 1918, having been graduated from the Paris High School.

During Miss Heller's stay at the University she has made an enviable record both in scholastic standing and in school activities. She is President of the Women's Self Government Council of the University, and will represent this Council at its National Convention held the first of May at Cornell University in New York. Miss Heller is a member of the Home Economic's Sorority Phi Upsilon Omicron and besides these honors she is a very attractive member of the Y. W. C. A., the Women's League, the Women's Administration Council and the Philanthropic Literary Society.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

If I had such an easy place, As that good, guy, the boss, I'd just roll on from base to base, Nor gather any moss.

Thomas A. Edison is sending out a list of questions for the women to answer, and it is our guess that a large majority of the answers will simply be "Because."

Says the crusty old Paris maiden: "Up to date none of the women folks of my acquaintance have been seen hanging around the corners of the streets in Paris, and complaining because the men's trousers aren't long enough."

Lives of Parisians some remind us We may toll with zeal intense, And, departing, leave behind us Less than forty-seven cents.

"My forty acres and set of buildings," remarked a Paris citizen, "seem to compare very favorably with these beautiful gems with enough land for a garage that I see advertised in the Lexington papers. I'm beginning to wonder if my little place isn't worth half as much."

Comedies always end with marriages, says a typical observer of the movies, who is also somewhat of a philosopher, because that's where the tragedy usually begins. But the modern novel is different. It opens with the tragedy of one marriage, solves the problem by desertion or divorce, and stops happily and comically at the altar where its characters try another time.

It is said that if you put one bad egg in a jar of water-glass with one hundred good ones none of the one hundred will be better than "scramblers" and a great many people believe the same principles operate in society. It might also apply to the modern "reformer," the holier-than-thou, do-as-I-say kind.

As soon as a Bourbon county boy or girl can read the Lord's Prayer he or she should be taught to read the home papers, most especially THE NEWS. And they should be encouraged to keep up in their after-lives, yea, even unto their children, and their children's children. For lo, THE BOURBON NEWS has gone from one generation to another of "the best families," and has always proved a welcome visitor.

A foghorn on an airplane would be useless, but some kind of signal that would accurately indicate the very near presence of an automobile on the streets of Paris when you're vainly attempting to negotiate a passage across, would be something effectual. Many drivers have horns (on their machines) that are absolutely useless, to all intents and purposes, as they do not take the trouble to sound them, even when they are about to knock down and run over a person.

A local merchant advertised "good woman's hose cheap." Guess he's right. Good women do not wear the $10 a pair kind as a rule.

Ships carrying much gold were conveyed through the war zone. Those carrying only men, women and children were not.

MORGAN'S MEN WILL MEET IN LEXINGTON THIS YEAR

Some 25 years ago members of Morgan's command who sought the opportunity to meet with each other free from the crowds and the tinsel of reunions such as had become customary with some of the organizations of Confederate soldiers, conceived the plan of having the fighting men of that command gather once a year.

The thought was that those who rode together during the four years of the war, those who were confined in Federal prisons, those who shared danger, faced death and imprisonment, should have an opportunity each year to gather and renew the memories of those gallant days.

General Basil Duke was elected the first president of the organization and such men as Steve Sharpe and Doctor Lewis and Ed Sinclair and Henry Holly and Ed Holly and Horace Taylor and W. C. P. Breckinridge, to the number of nearly 400, gathered at Olympia Springs. There were no balls, there were no maids of honor, there were no parades, were no high sounding titles at those reunions. The old stories were told and the friendships formed in those days of danger renewed.

Since then the organization has met every year at Olympia Springs or at Park's Hill camp ground in Nicholas county.

Death has been busy in the ranks of Morgan's men. Year by year with increased avidity death has taken from their number until today it seems that it may not be long until a Confederate soldier will be buried and no Confederate soldier left to walk by his bier.

This year Captain Horace Taylor, the secretary of Morgan's men, felt it would be better to have the meeting at some point more central than Olympian, which the members of the organization could reach without long travel.

Through Desha Breckinridge, whose father was a member of Morgan's men, Captain Taylor's thought was brought to the attention of the Hon. J. W. Stoll, president of the Country Club, and Mr. Stoll, speaking for the board of directors and the members of the club, promptly extended an invitation to Morgan's men to use the club for their reunion.

The Executive Committee of the organization will meet in the near future and fix a date for the reunion, which is usually held in the early fall. By having the reunion at the Country Club all the members can attend with assurance of an easy trip, of pleasant quarters, and warm hospitality and hold their reunion near the scene where the great majority of them enlisted under the Stars and Bars and also near scenes where they engaged in mortal combat with Federal troops.

KENTUCKY CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION AT LEXINGTON

The third annual meeting of the Kentucky Classical Association, on invitation of the schools and colleges of Lexington, was held in Lexington, Friday and Saturday and was one of the most important events of the week.

Officers of the association are Miss Elizabeth Roff, Ashland High School, president; Prof. T. T. Jones, University of Kentucky, vice-president; Prof. Wren Jones Grinstead, Eastern Normal school, secretary-treasurer. The headquarters for the delegates were at the Phoenix Hotel.

Prof. E. M. Costello, of the North Middletown High School, and Miss Virginia Lewis, of Millersburg College, are members of the Latin Tournament Committee; and Miss Lucille Harbold, of the Paris High School, is a member of the Latin Club Committee.

FOUR EXAMINATIONS FOR TEACHERS OF STATE

There will be four examinations for teachers for Kentucky public schools during 1922, it has been announced by George Colvin, State Superintendent. The first will be the regular examination for elementary certificates May 19 and 20; the second, the regular examination for elementary and State certificates and State diplomas, June 16 and 17; third, a special examination for elementary certificates in all counties and for State certificates at Frankfort, July 28 and 30, and fourth, the regular examination for elementary certificates, State certificates and State diplomas, September 15 and 16.

There will be no other examinations in any county and none at Frankfort except in case of "unquestionable emergency" at the latter place, the superintendent said. Examinations must be taken in the county in which the applicant lives or else at the department of education.

Certificates issued in counties other than those in which the applicant lives will be revoked.

Yes, That's the Rub. "It's our duty," said Uncle Eben "to love our fellow men. But in order to do so you's got to be terrible for givin'."

EATS ANYTHING JUST ANY TIME AND FEELS FINE

Mrs. Dora Fulton Declares She Was Hardly Able To Dress Herself Before Taking Tanlac, But Is Now Well And Strong.

Ms. Dora Fulton, 2737 W. Sixth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, has added her testimony to the thousands who have been benefited by Tanlac. She said:

"I was so run down I just felt good for nothing all the time. I had no appetite to speak of and the little I did eat upset me so that I was in misery for hours. My food formed gas that bloated me until I could hardly breathe. I was constipated and had dull, mean headaches. I couldn't sleep nights and often would wake up with a jump. I could scarcely dress myself, much less do any housework."

"Well, Tanlac did me so much good I think I can eat anything, any time. My sleep is sound and restful. I can easily do my housework, and I feel fine all the time. I just think Tanlac is the best medicine in the world."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. (adv)

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED FREE TO KY. UNIVERSITY

Scholarships to Kentucky University amounting to $6,500 are offered to members of the graduating class of high schools and preparatory schools for obtaining the largest number of subscriptions to the Kentucky Memorial Building fund, according to announcement made by the campaign committee following a conference with officials of the University.

One scholarship valued at $50 will be awarded in each county, provided a minimum of $500 is subscribed to the $300,000 Memorial Building to be erected in memory of the 3,056 Kentuckians who gave their lives in the World War. Five scholarships valued at $100 each will be awarded in the State at large.

One dollar for each school child in the State is the aim set by city and county superintendents and principals of schools. Soliciting will be started by the young people Monday following patriotic exercises in their respective schools.

Private schools and colleges will take part in the drive including the University of Louisville and the University of Kentucky. Flying squadrons made up of students from the University of Kentucky will visit towns in Central Kentucky during the last three days of the week supplementing the work of local committees.

SCOTTI OPERA COMPANY AT LEXINGTON

The Scotti Grand Opera Company will appear matinee and night at Woodland Auditorium, Friday, May 19, and will present "Carmen" in the afternoon and "Pagliacci" and "L'Oracolo," a double bill, in the evening. The one day will be devoted to the highest musical entertainment of the season in Central Kentucky.

Four years ago Antonio Scotti, the famous baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, inaugurated the first tour of the Scotti Grand Opera Company and visited a few cities in the Middle West in the early autumn with a company made up principally of artists, chorus and orchestra from the Metropolitan Opera House, in New York and with a repertoire of three operas. The success of the venture was instantaneous. The public realized that there was grand opera worthy of the name, grand opera as it was given at the Metropolitan and on a scale of magnificence heretofore never attempted by a traveling organization. The tour was artistically and financially successful.

Season tickets of $7.70 for the two performances are now on sale at the Lexington College of Music, as well as single tickets. Mail orders should be sent now for either season tickets or single tickets.

The 1922 grand opera season will be promoted by Miss Anna Chandler Goff, who had furnished Lexington with the Artist Concert Series.

STATE MEETING CLUB FEDERATION, MAY 24.

Miss Cromwell was appointed chairman of the department to fill the unexpired term of the late Mrs. Frank L. McVey, of Lexington. The five divisions of the department are home economics, thrift, art, library extension and education.

The annual meeting of the State Federation will convene in Hopkinsville, May 22. Miss Cromwell called the meeting at the request of Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, president of the State Federation.

SEE RELIABLE DEALER FOR WIRELESS OUTFIT

With the great popularization of radio has sprung up a mushroom growth of wireless equipment manufacturers who are flooding the markets with supplies. Some are unquestionably satisfactory, but many are grossly inferior.

A word of caution to the amateur: Buy your equipment from a reliable dealer only. Never take anything that is supposed to be "just as good."

Take a standard product, even if the price seems a bit higher. It is much cheaper in the end.

Unscrupulous dealers are prone to exaggerate the receiving power of their sets. Some instruments that were sold to "pick up" messages for a radius of several hundred miles never received anything from more than forty miles.

Eventually everyone, regardless of the distance from the transmitting stations, should be able to rig up his own outfit which will put him in touch with the wireless world.

Buy your radio equipment here in Paris, and you will be sure of getting only the reliable product.

The Difference. With most of us men our clothes are in style as long as they are wearable; whereas with the women their clothes are wearable only as long as they are in style.—Boston Transcript.

WHAT PARIS WANTS TO KNOW

The Answer Is Found In The Statement of a Paris Resident

From week to week, from year to year, there have been appearing in these columns statements made by neighbors, which we have all read with great interest, and many of us with great profit. But what we want to know is, do they stand the greatest test of all—the test of time? Here is conclusive evidence on this point from a Paris man:

Phillip M. Heller, proprietor meat market, 314 Second Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times in the past and have been greatly benefited by them. Whenever my back has been weak or lame or my kidneys have acted too frequently, causing me to get up during the night, a box of Doan's Kidney Pills which I get at Varden & Son's Drug Store has always given me fine relief. I certainly think Doan's are a splendid remedy and gladly recommended them to anyone." (Statement given Nov. 9, 1916.)

On November 12, 1920, Mr. Heller said: "I am glad to say the cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me has been a lasting one. All I said in the past in favor of them I now can firm for I think just as highly of Doan's to-day as I ever did."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Heller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MIWOGCO MINERAL SPRINGS, MODERN WONDER WORKER

Situated upon a lake of thirty two acres in area, and just upon the crest of a chain of rugged hills, near Milan, Indiana, forty-two miles west of Cincinnati, is Miwogco Mineral Springs, recreative hotel and sanitarium, rapidly gaining fame as a health builder and an unequalled pleasure resort.

It is 1,000 feet above sea level, surrounded by a large natural grove of beech trees, and with a delightful summer temperature. Its proximity to Cincinnati, Louisville and Indianapolis is such that, aided by motor and train facilities, should guests be summoned suddenly to home or business there would be no serious delay. The Springs Hotel is an inviting, thoroughly modern institution of 120 rooms, open all the year around, offering every day of the year all the advantages of the most noted European and American spas, with the accessibility of "next door." It has a mineral bath department unexcelled at any resort, specializing on rheumatism in various forms. Attractive scenic drives within a radius of a few miles lead to some of Nature's most charming spots.

The environment of Miwogco Springs is ideal. It is located on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, upon the most elevated point in that section, and is an ideal place in which to rest, relax and recuperate when nervous and depressed by business cares. Here is offered Nature's greatest gifts to the sick—pure air, invigorating and fresh, laden with the fragrance of forest and field; purifying, stimulating sunshine, undimmed by grime and smoke; quiet, peaceful, satisfying rest, undisturbed by the call of duty or the demands of society; good wholesome food, well prepared, subject to the dietetic requirements of your individual case.

Recreation is amply provided for. You will find at your disposal a lake of 32 acres, well-stocked with bass, affording excellent fishing and boating; a golf course (now under construction); tennis courts; horseback riding; quoits; croquet; hunting; swimming, and the surpassing benefits of the great out-of-doors—Nature's best remedy for exhaustion. For those confined indoors, there are music, dancing, billiards, pool and games of various kinds. With these health-giving factors there is a Hydrotherapeutic Department with its invigorating and stimulating Mineral Baths administered scientifically, under professional supervision, by skilled attendants.

The name Miwogco is a contraction of the Milan Water, Oil & Gas Co., which was organized to drill for oil or gas. A 1,470 foot well was driven, and instead of oil or gas this now famous mineral water was discovered. It was regarded as of no value, but as time passed its wonderful curative properties became manifest and later on it was developed and the present health building wonder, Miwogco Mineral Springs came into existence.

About one-fourth mile from the Sanitarium is the town of Milan, Ind. It is a small town, but possesses metropolitan ambitions and offers guests continuous telegraph service; churches of all denominations; a railroad station close to the town; a dance hall; bowling alleys; moving picture theatre showing latest attractions; a number of good stores and lodges of practically every affiliation.

Those persons who are recovering from severe and protracted illnesses and who are eager for a quiet home like place with an agreeable environment will find Miwogco Mineral Springs congenial, and the stimulating and invigorating effects of the baths will assist greatly in hastening the return to health.

If you are in good health, you will enjoy Miwogco Mineral Springs—if you are in ill health, you need Miwogco. The function of the Sanitarium is to restore your health through natural advantages offered. And all may enjoy these benefits, for the cost is reasonable.

Twenty-five Bourbon county people have already visited this institution, and all have made return visits. Many of them acclaim its attractions and the healing qualities of the water far superior to other resorts and in the plain parlance of the day, "It's back to Miwogco for us."

Miwogco has but one purpose, that of service—to assist in bringing health to the sick, strength to the weary, hope to the discouraged.

CHANCE FOR STATE MUSICIANS IN FRENCH SCHOOL

Five Kentucky musicians will have an opportunity to take a special course of music this summer at the Fontainebleau School of Music, Paris, France, as Governor Morrow has received a letter from the American representative of the school asking him to name five Kentuckians for free scholarships. Last summer representatives from practically every State in the union studied at this school on free scholarships, the representatives having been appointed by the governors of the respective States. Kentucky had five representatives at the school, one of whom was from Lexington and one from Frankfort.

HOW SOME "FOOL LAWS" ARE REGARDED

"Be it enacted by the City Council of Some City that it shall hereafter be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any man, woman or child to have a fever."

If any city council did pass such an ordinance, the country would laugh. Forbidding symptoms and leaving the cause untouched would be considered foolish to the point of insanity.

Yet what shall be said of the action of a Southern city council which has passed an ordinance barring "jazz" from the stage, public dances, and perhaps from all homes?

If reports can be believed, the authorities are now somewhat puzzled to know where ordinary music leaves off and jazz begins. Is jazz caused by cymbals and drums? Wagnerian music would come under the ban. Is it caused by piccolo notes, high and shrill? Church organs would be heavy offenders! Is it jazz when a saxophone moans? Never a band in the country that hasn't a saxophone choir among its instrumentation!

However, what is and what is not jazz may be determined by some ukase; the question is not so much what is decided to be jazz and there fore prohibited, but why prohibit the symptom and leave the cause untouched?

This particular instance will probably afford more amusement than anything else, and the chorus of fun poked at this city council by the daily press is already swelling. But considered as a symptom, such action may well cause serious thought; America is founded on law, order, and respect for government, on freedom of thought, religion and action so long as we interfere not with our neighbor's rights.

Passage of ridiculous (and not enforceable) law tends to make all law ridiculous. Make contempt for law universal, and the United States must become as Rome was and Russia is.

MIXING IN WITH EUROPE

He must be unobserving indeed who does not notice these days an increasing number of signs of the coming spring. This season of the year is responsible for many other things besides turning the young man's fancy to thoughts of love.

Many of the activities to which spring gives rise are of a practical nature, more agreeable to look back to after they have been completed, than to anticipate. Spring house-cleaning and putting to order what confusion the basement and back yard have acquired during the winter months, are after all arduous tasks rather than delightful adventures.

But the call of the open road so easily heard with approaching spring is to-day as poetic as ever, and may be satisfied in even more ways than it was formerly. Whether the call comes from the long screech of a train whistle in the stillness of night, or from the sight of a boat steaming grandly up or down the river; whether it comes from the lazily drifting clouds or from nothing in particular, it is as irresistible to-day as it ever was.

And so it happens that boat-loads of people from America are now setting sail for Europe. Day by day the passenger lists of trans-Atlantic liners grow. Presently thousands of American tourists will rush from city to city on the continent determined not to miss a single point of interest. With the coming of warmer days more and more sightseers will follow the more intrepid ones who can not resist even the first faint calls of the open road.

In the face of a good deal of talk urging us to beware of foreign entanglements these hundreds of thousands of people go abroad to deliver there the message of America, as they will bring back with them the message of Europe. Quite unconsciously they will bring closer together the nations of the earth. When they return there will be more of us who understand Europe, just as from their sojourn abroad there will be more Europeans who understand America.

It is difficult to isolate nations when there are so many steamboats and railroads, and when the urge to travel is so insistent.

ARBOR DAY AND BIRD DAY MAY 4

Arbor and Bird Day in Kentucky this year will be made a day in which to honor Audubon, the lover of bird and animal life, whose work did much for the present day movement for conservation of the bird life of the country. Governor Morrow in a proclamation issued has set aside May 4, as the day to be observed this year by planting of trees and taking steps to see to it that birds have proper places to live and raise their young.

FERGUSON—ROGERS

"Glen Iris," the ancestral home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Roberts, was the scene of one of the loveliest weddings of the season, when, on Saturday evening at eight-thirty o'clock, the only daughter of the house, Miss Margaret Waller Ferguson, became the bride of Mr. Harvey Allen Rogers, thus uniting two of the oldest and most prominent families of Bourbon county.

"Glen Iris" has come down for many generations of the maternal ancestors of the bride's father, the late Robert H. Ferguson, and many brides have graced its gracious halls, but none more lovely than the bride of Saturday evening.

There is no moment in the year when Nature seems more radiantly at her best than when the tulips and iris rise in slender, graceful stems to attest their vast variety of beauty and form, and to give color and fragrance unexcelled at any other season.

"Glen Iris" was aglow with these wonderful blossoms, and added to these there were hundreds of gorgeous Columbia roses. Stately palms and ferns adorned the hallway, and sun parlor, with Southern smilax entwined over doorways, windows, mantels and staircase. The drawing room was the scene for the ceremony. A bank of palms and ferns, interspersed with cathedral candles, with tall Easter lilies over which was a graceful canopy of smilax formed an appropriate setting for the wedding party. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Edward F. Prichard sang sweetly "The Wedding Song," by Mary Rosa, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Crutcher on the piano and Mr. Bryan Doty with the violin. Miss Crutcher and Mr. Doty also played "To A Wild Rose," and "At Dawn." During the ceremony the wedding march from Lohengrin was rendered.

The entrance of Rev. W. S. Cain and Bishop Lewis W. Burton heralded the coming of the bridal party. The two ministers stood immediately in front of the improvised altar. The groom's attendants came next, Mr. Allen Ingels and Mr. Julian Allen, cousins of the groom. Mrs. Wm. A. Clarke, of Cincinnati, matron of honor, came next, alone. She was never lovelier as a bride than on this occasion. She wore a pink Georgette evening gown over pink crepe de chine, beautifully fashioned, with trimmings of rosebuds of the same material. The narrow panel train, hung from the shoulders, was trimmed at the hem with a row of the same rosebuds. Her lovely gown only enhanced her striking brunette beauty. She carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses.

Mrs. Charles Miles McKinlay, of New York, also a cousin of the bride, wore a gown of the same lovely material. She carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses. Miss Mary Hall Anderson, of Georgetown, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was lovely in a gown of pink taffeta. She also carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses.

The bride came last, on the arm of her brother, Mr. Hugh Ferguson, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. Julian Rogers. The ceremony was said by Bishop Burton, assisted by Rev. W. S. Cain, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, of Paris, and was very beautiful and impressive, the bride and groom kneeling on white satin cushion for the benediction.

The bride's gown was of white satin, made on straight lines, with a bouffant effect on the hips. The court train was without ornament, and hung straight from the round neck bodice. The veil was draped from the back in a Spanish comb effect of rose point lace, and caught with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. She was a vision of loveliness in her bridal robe.

A delicious two-course supper was served to about two hundred guests. The wedding presents were very handsome, and numbered several hundred. They were displayed on tables in the upper hall.

The bride's table was covered with an exquisitely embroidered Philipino cloth. The centerpiece was of Columbia roses, with silver candlesticks holding pink candles, also silver compots of nuts, with candied baskets of confections.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers received the guests in the east drawing room. Mrs. Roberts wore a lovely gown of blue and silver, and Mrs. Rogers wore black lace over black satin.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. E. H. Dorian, Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Letitia Magoffin, St. Paul, Minn.; Miss Lillie Boulden, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, Cincinnati; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Miles McKinlay, New York City; Mrs. J. K. Nunnally, Mrs. Lou Rogers, Mrs. Earl Ferguson, Miss Lida Earl Ferguson, Mrs. Henry Clay Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. William Kenney Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dedman Prewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Anderson, Miss Mary Hall Anderson, Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, Mrs. Sue Anderson Kelley, Mrs. John B. Graves, Miss Eleanor Offutt, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson, Newport; Mrs. Norman L. Hill, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wainwright, Winchester; Mrs. W. C. Ferguson, Lagrange; Mrs. C. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Allen, Miss Elizabeth Bush Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Allen, Millersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McMurtry, Cynthia; Miss Susan Woods, Stanford; Bishop Lewis W. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ingels, Mr. Allen Ingels, Mrs. Jere Tarlton, Miss Fannie Summers Tarlton, Lexington.

The bride has inherited all the natural graces and loveliness of a long line of beautiful women, to which is added that indefinable quality of charm that makes the Bourbon county girl the peer of any in the world. Mr. Rogers is an energetic young man of ability and integrity, a member of one of the first families of the county.

LUSBY—TALBOTT

A telegram from Washington to Mrs. H. S. Towler, of Scott avenue, told of the marriage in that city, Saturday, of Miss Clementine Lusby, formerly of Paris, and Mr. Robert C. Talbott, of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Talbott will come to Paris to reside the latter part of this week.

The bride came to Paris several years ago to make her home, and resided here until the opening of the world war, when she engaged in Red Cross work, and was assigned to duty in one of the reconstruction hospitals in the East. After the close of the war she was transferred to Washington, where she had been in charge of one of the Government's big institutions for disabled soldiers, and where she proved a veritable angel of mercy. Possessed of a gracious and charming manner and a most engaging personality, she made a host of friends here, who are a unit in congratulating Mr.

Talbott on winning the heart and hand of so winsome and charming a woman.

Mr. Talbott is one of the ablest members of the local bar, being senior member of the law firm of Talbott & Whitley, and of the firm of Franklin, Talbott & Chapman, of Paris and Lexington. His legal talents, coupled with a brilliant intellect and social qualities, have made him one of the foremost attorneys of the State.

THE NEWS, in common with a host of warm friends, extends heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Talbott.

KEYES—METCALFE

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Keyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson Keys, of 375 Park Avenue, New York, and Geo. Thomas Metcalfe, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Metcalfe, of Louisville, and Morristown, N. J., and brother of James G. Metcalfe, of Paris, took place Saturday afternoon in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, on Upper Fifth Avenue, in New York.

Owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's mother, the reception at Sherry's after the church ceremony was small, only relatives and intimate friends being invited. Miss Virginia Keys was her sister's maid of honor, and the other attendants were Mrs. William Anderson Keys, Jr., Mrs. Clarence R. Hayes, of Cleveland, Mrs. Geo. W. McClelland, of Overbrook, Penn., and Mrs. Thomas R. Shepard, of South Orange, N. J.

John F. Metcalfe was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Williams Anderson Keys, Jr., brother of the bride; Simpson Lynch and Charles B. Marr, of New York, Robert H. Sayre, of Baltimore, Arthur C. Ketchman, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Thomas R. Shepard, of South Orange, N. J.

ON TALKING IT OVER

Lloyd George is reported to have said in the British House of Commons recently:

"Perhaps I may have the privilege of a dying minister to give my last word of advice. I do not know who will succeed me, but I would like to utter a word of kindly warning. Whoever succeeds us will surely find it impossible in the present state of Europe to go on without conferences. The world is so battered, bruised and crushed that the cure will be a slow one and will need many consultations of its leading physicians."

This bit of advice does not find application merely in the difficulties which arise between nations. Just now, of course, it is natural that England's prime minister should address his admonition chiefly to those in Europe and elsewhere who fail to see the advantage to be gained by the various national groups from conferences in which the issues at stake shall be discussed thoroughly.

But surely even within the nation, particularly here in America, there is ample reason to take this advice to heart. It is only in defiance of the truth that either of the opposing parties to a conflict such as is now being witnessed in the coal industry, can say that there is nothing to arbitrate or discuss.

Any group of individuals, whether miners or operators, which adopts this attitude is clearly in a position to lose the very support which it asks of the public. From an outbreak of this kind the public has too much to lose to make it subscribe easily to the doctrine that in the cases of an industrial disturbance there is nothing to adjust through a conference of conflicting parties.

Indeed, what is more likely to happen is that the party unwilling to arbitrate draws on itself the suspicion that its case is not a strong one. And the more the public suffers from the cessation of work which follows unwillingness to arbitrate, the more it finds itself justified in this belief. It is only the individual who hasn't a good case who will refuse to state it when an opportunity.

The obvious course to take, whether it is between nations or between conflicting industrial groups within the nation, is to follow Lloyd George's advice and get together for a conference. The party which refuses to do so may in the end have to pay dearly for its refusal.

$300,000 IN TAXES LOST TO STATE

Estimating that the State is losing $300,000 annually in gasoline taxes, Rainey T. Wells, chairman of the State Tax Commission, notified wholesale gasoline dealers that unless a proper check is kept on the gasoline tax the commission, in the future, will look to the retailers for the license tax.

When the legislature passed the law imposing a one cent tax on each gallon of gasoline sold in Kentucky the wholesale gasoline dealers agreed to pay the tax, in order to do away with a great deal of book-keeping which the law would make necessary.

Several of the large wholesalers, among them the Standard Oil Company, have complied with the law, wholesalers are not keeping a proper check on the amount of gasoline sold to retailers.

Margot Asquith says if England expects to hear her lecture on America it will be disappointed. Just like America.

BOURBON GUN CLUB SHOOT WEDNESDAY

Through their local manager, Mr. E. W. Glass, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company will give 1,000 of their Fatima cigarettes as a trophy at the next shoot, which will be held at the new club grounds in East Paris on May 3. This trophy is worth shooting for.

The management had completed last week a pair of stiles over the rock fence, also a board walk across the little branch, screenings and sand spread on shooting stands, and in front of the club house, all of which makes the grounds second to none in the State. Plenty of seats and ice water for shooters and visitors, who are always welcome.

BACK IN THE NEWSPAPER GAME

Like many others who have tried the newspaper game, Mr. J. M. Alverson, of Paris, found it a hard matter to stay out of it. Mr. Alverson, after a long period of activity in other pursuits, has purchased the Harlan Enterprise, one of the leading Eastern Kentucky papers, published at Harlan, and assumed charge yesterday.

Mr. Alverson has been in the newspaper business almost thirty years, having been connected with papers in Stanford, Richmond, Lawrenceburg and Georgetown. Some time ago he bought the old Hilber farm on the Jackstown pike, near Paris, and had since been engaged in farming. Recently he sold the place to James W. Thompson, who now occupies it.

Mr. Alverson's family will remain here for the present, and join him some time later.

The formal opening of the new confectionery of Benedetti & Co., in the Nippert Block, Saturday, drew a large crowd, who were surprised at the scene of beauty presented in the new enterprise. Souvenirs of beautiful flowers were presented the ladies, and an orchestra discoursed sweet music during the day and evening. The new place is complete in all its appointments.

MAY COURT DAY

One of the slowest court days of the season was yesterday. Farmers were busy with their farm work, and would not leave it. There was very little stock of any kind on the markets, and those that were sold brought only fair prices. Merchants report trade, only fair, and collections about the same. Business on the public square was practically over by two o'clock, with a few stragglers left over.

If you have water on the brain it doesn't matter whether it is boiled or not.

When the Ingels building recently burnt at Millersburg, our night operator, Mrs. Cletis Evans, remained at her switchboard all during the fire, even though the heat and flames from the burning building broke the large plate glass of the building the exchange is in. The owner of the building was notified of the fire by our telephone, while our Assistant Manager, Mr. Cletis Evans, went in person to the burning building and woke up Mr. McMahan and his family who lived on the second floor, and lost all of his household effects, and if it had not been for the timely warning of Mr. Evans, some lives might have been lost.

$50,000.00 KENTUCKY DERBY

Will Be Run at Churchill Downs, Louisville,
Saturday, May 13th

Morvich, the Champion of Last Season, and a Large Field of Other
High Class Three Year Olds, Will Be Among the Starters
For the Greatest Stake in America

The forty-eighth renewal of the Kentucky Derby, which will be run at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Saturday, May 13th, promises to be the most interesting in the long history of this famous race. This year the Kentucky Jockey Club has added $50,000, and a $7,000 gold service to the winner, making it in point of value the richest, as it always has been the most sought after three-year-old stake in America. There clusters around the Derby all the memories and the romance that make the turf so alluring and that enshrines Churchill Downs in the hearts of half a century of race lovers.

Beginning with Aristides, the first winner, and continuing through an immortal roster of thoroughbred Kings, public interest in the Derby has increased every year until to-day the names of the contenders are household words, and their respective merits are subject of arguments that will not cease until the number of the winner is hung out on May 13th.

The outstanding favorite this year is Benjamin Block's Morvich, which finished his two-year-old career by winning every race in which he started, beating all his competitors with an ease that marks him as a colt of surpassing speed and quality, approaching, if he does not equal, Man o' War. Morvich is training at the Jamaica race track, New York, where his trials are phenomenal. He will probably start in the opening handicap at Jamaica and will be shipped immediately thereafter to Churchill Downs where he will receive his final workout for the Derby.

The prowess of Morvich has not discouraged the owners of other Derby candidates and there will be a field of from twelve to fifteen horses to contest with the champion for the $50,000 stake and its accompanying $7,000 gold souvenir. Among the number are Harry Payne Whitney's Olympus, a recent winner at Havre de Grace, over older handicap horses, and at least one other high-class colt from the same stable; Montfort Jones' Surf Rider, the winner of six races last year, and Rockminister, a promising Friar Rock colt; John Finn, whose work at Lexington makes him a dangerous contender; the great filly Startle, which might repeat the victory of Regret, the only filly to win the Derby; Washington from the same stable is also showing improved form this spring; E. R. Bradley has By Golly, Busy American and Bet Mosie, and he makes no secret of the claim that he expects to run one two in this year's Derby as he did last year with Behave Yourself and Black Servant; J. S. Cosden who already has one Derby winner to his credit in Paul Jones, believes he has an excellent chance to win with Good Times; Kai Sang, who ran second to Morvich several times last year, is eligible for the Derby; Gentility, the winner of the Lexington Futurity, has worked faster than any filly in the West. Unless she is saved for the Oaks, she will certainly go in the Derby. Lucky Hour is the hope of the Simms' stable. He is already a winner this year, was second in the Pimlico Futurity last year, and is a horse of undoubted class. With Deadlock, Spanish Maize, Chatterton, My Play and several other dark horses to draw from, there is sure to be a large field of the best three-year-olds in America to face the starter at Churchill Downs on Saturday, May 13th.

The Downs is more beautiful than ever this year, accommodations for the public have been greatly increased, and every arrangement has been made for the reception of at least 75,000 people. The Kentucky Derby is the center of all attraction in the turf world and Churchill Downs will be the Mecca to which all lovers of high-class sport will turn on Saturday, May 13th, the opening day of the Spring meeting at Louisville, which will continue until June 3rd.

HONEST BURGLAR ACQUITTED IN COURT

John M. Gilroy was released in San Francisco, Calif., as an "honest" robber.

Gilroy told the court he had been out of work, his wife ill, and his children hungry. He needed $6, so he took his revolver and held up a soft drink establishment, taking $6. He found work the next day and out of his first pay he paid back the $6, then surrendered to the police. The jury took a standing vote of acquittal.

SMALL INCREASE IN BURLEY CROP SEEMS PROBABLE

That the general tobacco situation in the Burley section is greatly improved over what it was a year ago, that the growers are greatly encouraged over the operation of their organization and that the increase in the crop of 1922 will not be more than 15 to 20 per cent. over the production of 1921 are statements made by President James C. Stone, of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, in response to inquiries as to the tobacco situation and the probable production for the coming season.

Mr. Stone says in his statement that the crop of 1921 will not total more than 175,000,000 pounds; that 120,000,000 pounds of this has been handled by the Burley Association; that between 55,000,000 and 60,000,000 pounds of this has been sold to manufacturers "at very satisfactory prices to the growers," and that the association will sell the remainder as soon as it is properly redried and prized in hogheads.

In his statement Mr. Stone says: "There are approximately 175,000,000 pounds of the 1921-1922 crop of Burley tobacco, which is the smallest crop of Burley that has been grown in the past fifteen years, and this shortage is due largely to the extremely low prices realized by the growers last year, together with the generally unsettled business conditions of the country."

"During last summer and last fall the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association was organized and actually began functioning on the 26th of January, and through the association we have handled 120,000,000 pounds of this year's crop. We have sold of this amount between 55,000,000 and 60,000,000 pounds at very satisfactory prices to the growers, and will sell the balance as soon as it is properly redried and prized into hogheads."

"From present indications it looks now as if the crop will be increased this year over last from 15 to 20 per cent. in acreage, but it is hard to tell what the ultimate outcome of production will be, for the reason that weather conditions for the next four months play such an important factor in the size and quality of the crop."

"The general tobacco situation in the Burley section is greatly improved over what it was at this time last year. The growers are very much more encouraged, and feel now, that through the operation of their association they have found a way out of their troubles."

"This general feeling of being able to help themselves, and the better prices which have been realized for their biggest money crop through their association, has given them new hope, and this feeling seems to be permeating every line of business in the Burley district."

WATTERSON MEMORIAL COMMITTEE TO MEET TUESDAY

"Pursuant to a resolution of the General Assembly of Kentucky," Governor Morrow says, "I have taken great pleasure in appointing you a member of the Henry Watterson Memorial Commission."

"It will be the duty, and I am sure the very great privilege of this commission to have charge of a movement to select and provide ways and means to erect a suitable memorial to the great Kentuckian, the patriotic American, the distinguished journalist—one who loved and served his nation, his State and his people."

VAST DIRIGIBLE LINE IS PLANNED

Corporation Is Formed for the Promotion of Commercial Flying in United States.

BIG MEN BEHIND PROJECT

First Line to Be Operated Will Be From New York to Chicago—Airships to Be of Modified Zeppelin Type—Use Helium Gas.

Washington.—The formation of a gigantic corporation for commercial navigation of the air in this country, through the establishment of regular lines over which will be operated huge dirigible airships of the modified Zeppelin type, was announced by the United States chamber of commerce. The corporation will be known as General Air Service, its incorporators and founders include some of the best-known men of the country. Definite plans for the construction of huge dirigibles in Germany have been formed, the whole dirigible situation has been studied from an advanced scientific point of view and, it is announced, the corporation expects to be able to place two large ships in operation in this country in the summer of 1923.

Benedict Crowell is one of the group of financial men and engineers behind the project, and he will be president of the new corporation, which was incorporated under the laws of Maryland on Feb. 21, 1922. Mr. Crowell was formerly assistant secretary of war, was head of the American aviation mission to Europe, and is president of the Aero Club of America.

Field Thoroughly Investigated. Before going ahead with the incorporation of the General Air Service, which will be the manufacturing and operating company, the men interested in the project formed what was known as the American Investigation corporation, for the purpose of investigating the practicability of the establishment of commercial air service with large rigid airships in this and neighboring countries. In their investigations the representatives of the corporation had the co-operation and assistance of Dr. Johann Schuette of the Schuette-Lanz Airship company of Germany, and his corps of engineers, also various engineers and associates of other airship authorities of Europe. Dr. Schuette had been in America in the spring of 1920, as had officials of the Zeppelin company, and the information gained from them was of material service in the first formal step—the organization of the American Investigation corporation.

The first line the company hopes to put into operation will be from New York to Chicago, to be extended to Pacific coast cities as soon as additional ships can be built. The New York-Chicago line will be opened, it is announced, by two ships, each of approximately 4,000,000 cubic feet capacity, these ships to be fabricated in Germany and erected in the United States. They are designed to provide accommodations for 100 passengers and 30 tons of mail and express matter. It is announced to be the plan to build larger ships for lines to South America and Europe when the facilities for complete construction have been gathered.

Dr. Schuette is identified with the new company. It is declared to be the plan to build the later ships in this country, and virtually to transfer a large part of the Zeppelin-making business to the United States.

Plan to Use Helium.

It is not planned to use hydrogen gas, but helium, in these gigantic new dirigibles which, it is asserted, will embrace the latest modifications of both the Zeppelin and Schuette patents, both of which were combined in the last of the German dirigibles built during the war. It is also asserted that gasoline, another source of fire and explosion, will not be used, and that that motive power will be furnished by oil fuel.

"Commercial air transport in the United States," says the announcement, "is in the doldrums, and apparently will remain so until it is given legal and economic status by federal or at least by unified state action. Properly developed, with present transportation systems, this new agency can become a most valuable addition to the nation's specialized carrier capacity in peace as well as in war."

"At present nation-wide regulative legislation is greatly needed, not only for the ordinary needs of public safety, but also to establish the legal status and responsibilities of air transport in national and international business. Canada, Australia and European nations already have provided such legislation. Without practical encouragement commercial aeronautics in America will continue to lag behind foreign development to such an extent as to constitute a menace to future security and to delay fatally the essential commercial development in which America should rightly stand first."

The report recommends immediate support of basic national legislation on aeronautics providing for appropriate regulatory procedure, adequate facilities in the department of commerce for promoting the regulation and development of commercial air transport operations in interstate and foreign commerce, intrastate legislation, an encouragement of widespread public support of this essential aeronautical legislation.

In its announcement of the General Air Service company's plans, the chamber of commerce of the United States gives this statement in its official organ from Benedict Crowell:

"Our aim is to provide rigid airship service to America first, and, as time goes on, link this continent with the rest of the world by aerial routes; a service supplementing existing methods of transportation, one which will traverse space in a minimum of time and supply a means of travel both safe and comfortable."

"Aerial transportation is just as necessary to present-day civilization as the railroads were to civilization fifty years ago. In no country in the world is this new method of transportation more necessary than in the United States because of its great expanse of territory and its numerous urban centers of large size. The United States can and should lead the world in the rigid airship field."

Got Information in Europe.

Mr. Crowell was one of a group that spent much of the spring and summer of 1921 in Europe. They went to airship factories and stations in Germany, France, England and Italy. They made flights in British, ex-German and Italian airships, and secured data covering manufacturing and operating costs not only of airships but of hangars, mooring masts, landing fields and terminal facilities. They secured information and engineering data regarding flights over routes in the countries named, passenger accommodations, freight and express handling, fuel and supply statistics, replacement costs, insurance rates and the laws governing air navigation in Europe.

"At the same time," the statement from Mr. Crowell explains, "we were carrying on investigations here in the United States. We looked into the helium question, its cost and probable supply; sources of operating revenue, passenger, freight, express and mail; the most feasible routes over which to start our new service to supplement existing traffic facilities; meteorological data and the effect that our climate will have on a yearly operation schedule; and the thousand and one things which develop into real problems to be surmounted in any undertaking of such wide application."

It was in these investigations that the representatives of the American Investigation corporation had the co-operation and capable assistance of Dr. Schuette.

"We uncovered enough evidence early on our trip to Europe," continued Mr. Crowell's statement, "taken with that previously found, to convince us all that the time had arrived for action; that certain conditions abroad, if taken advantage of, would place the United States in the lead in the airship industry, perhaps for all time. Political conditions, reduced rates of exchange, post-war reparations, the non-employment of airship talent, all these were factors in giving airships a setback in Europe. These factors are to our advantage."

On the return of these investigators from Europe plans were formulated for the organization of the General Air Service company, which starts business with the accumulated data acquired by the American Investigation corporation. The latter corporation has acquired various rights for the construction of German rigid through-out the world, secured options on certain equipment vital to the industry, including mooring masts, hangars, terminal apparatus and plans and specifications for rigid airships of various capacities for long-distance routes.

When Hungry Little Muscles

Say, "Please Help Me"

DID you ever stop to think who it really is that's talking, when childish voices raise a clamor, "Mother, I'm hungry?"

It's really muscles and bones and nerves and cells worn in the stress and strain of play—that are calling for rebuilding material.

What kind of an answer? The right thing, or just anything? It makes a big difference.

Grape-Nuts, so deliciously crisp and appetizing to taste, and so quick and convenient to serve, is a splendid food for rebuilding young bodies. All the wonderful nutriment put in wheat and barley by Nature, including the vital mineral elements, is there—and Grape-Nuts digests easily, quickly and completely. Served with cream or milk, Grape-Nuts is exceptionally nourishing.

"That's splendid!" says appetite. "That's just the need!" say the hungry muscles, nerves and bones.

Ready to serve right from the package—always crisp and fresh. A favorite dish with all the family. Sold by grocers.

TARIFF "PANACEA" AGAIN

The United States Senate has spawned its tariff bill. It is in some respects higher than the notorious Payne-Aldrich law of the previous Republican administration and considerably above the present Underwood law.

Doubtless it represents the views of the high protectionists of the country who believe that a tariff wall begets prosperity, even though it does strangle international trade. And it does beget prosperity for those who are protected. But no tariff protects everybody and this one will come farther short of everybody than any such measure for a long period of years.

For the consumer there is one important thing always to remember about any tariff. It is that it is a means of making the consumer pay more for his shoes, his woolen socks and his clothing than otherwise. That is the point of a tariff—to cut out competition so that the American manufacturer can raise his price. Such a manufacturer is "protected," to be sure—a beneficiary of special privilege.

The answer of the high tariff man is that the American workman gets higher wages because of the tariff. The American workman ought to be able to answer that. He received more money under the Underwood low tariff act than under any high tariff law ever passed.

BOURBON FARM CONDITIONS

Reports from all parts of the county indicate that the recent frosts did more damage than at first reported, but that the major part of the fruit crop is so far safe. According to Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the veteran Lexington horticulturist, the danger is not entirely over.

This week farmers are busy making up lost time in working the ground for planting corn. Most of the oats has already been planted. Farmers are also busy preparing ground for tobacco. Tobacco plants are showing up well, according to reports, and considering all circumstances, should be plentiful and in good condition this year.

The killing of men by women seems to be one infant industry that is flourishing.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Mrs. Ella Mernaugh sold last week to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lytle a vacant lot, facing on Henderson street, at a price not reported for publication. Mr. and Mrs. Lytle are planning a nice cottage home to be erected on their purchase in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Brannon, of Lexington, formerly of Paris, sold to Harris, Speakes & Harris, realtor, their property on Seventh street, composed of two houses and lots. The purchasers will remove the old building and erect a two story brick building with storeroom below and apartments.

Jonas Well has purchased from Jerome Sellers, of Lexington, the Howerton farm, located on the Bethlehem pike, about three miles from Paris, containing 453 acres. This is one of the best tracts of land in Bourbon county, and for many years was owned by the late Joseph A. Howerton.

The E. M. Thomason Agency, realtors, of Millersburg, sold to N. H. Collier fifty-two acres of unimproved land, near Millersburg, formerly part of the J. H. Thorn farm, belonging to W. W. Greathouse, for $4,500 cash.
